Message from Managing Director

“Your Business prospects are about to improve- boost your business with the right kind of Human Assets.”

Manpower is the back bone of every business we perform. Without adequate and supportive manpower a business can't be successful. In this highly competitive world, I have observed that even the Giant Corporate are complaining about skill shortages. They are grouching that they can't find skilled workers, and filling a job can take months of hunting which leads in creating many other operational difficulties, ultimately affecting their profit margins. I had successfully identified the agonizing nerves of the Giants & started a setup called AL-

YAFUR Initially, we were operating small scale but with our effective problem solving approach, integrity, commitment, perseverance and ethical business practices we have climbed the success ladder soon and have sustained till date. Today we are ranked among the top Manpower Consultant Agencies approved by Government of India and have got certification from various Indian and Middle east Embassies, authorized to function as an Indian Manpower Recruitment Consultant.

I would Like to conclude by assuring you once again our best co-operation & prompt attention at all times.

Warm Regards
Faisal Nisar
